

ART IN BLOOM 2017

--3rd Planning Meeting—May 3rd, 2017—Minutes

Present: Diane Mettler, Chris Bivins, Terry & Sharon Van Eaton, Nancy Iams, Sue Turner, Lynne Smith, Vera Fair

Terry: Will have two shipments of antiques they will be unpacking for Art in Bloom. Just put in flowering pears, big rhody, bought a couple more umbrellas, so total of 10; have lots of chairs

Diane: Brochure should be ready by end of May.

MUSIC

Terry: Saturday music—David Willard, fiddle; Lily Ann Nelson, violin; Jason Hunter, piano; Bob Miller, saxophone; Chris

GARDENS TO TOUR:

Diane: Has three definite gardens, plus Nancy's. Looking for one more garden. Needs Butler's phone number. Putnam is digging big root cellar. Tom Smallwood?

Terry: Usually in Alaska at this time of year.

Diane will ask.

ARTISTS/VENDORS:

Diane: Emailing, getting okays, going well, 10 committed (20 last year), Ellis maybe, doing last round. Going to try Sonny Morrison. If everyone says yes, might be up to 20.

--10 X 10 booth--$35.00; double size $50.00; bring own tent. Forms on website.

Sue: Grandson Steven Mastandrea—Terrariums and Fairy Gardens—(Doubling with Sue)

FRIDAY FOOD:

Nancy: Tena's husband, Steve Schmidt, might donate big bottle of cider.

Lynne: (Need pansies for cookies.) Also making Capri—Mozzarella, basil, cheese, good with wine; finger sandwiches—cream cheese, cucumber, etc., good with tea; celery stuffed with bacon, cranberry, walnuts; lavender tea cakes; chocolate cookies; grapes (white and red seedless).

SATURDAY FOOD:

Sue: Food Court? Corn.

Diane: Should be pretty easy. Orthopedic nachos. Tables all over, can move closer.

DEMONSTRATIONS:

Nancy: Brother in her booth, geologist. Does questions/answers about Mt. Rainier. Bring favorite rock...

Diane: Mary Bewley may do a demo on how to arrange flowers

ADVERTISING:

Sue: Ready for ads—business card size, color, refer to website. Chris is doing them.

AUCTIONS:

Sharon: Kitt Heuer, friend, interested, makes wooden doormats that can be used outside.

Terry: Has benches. We can cut holes in it to put plants to auction.

Nancy: Wishing well out front needs work and can be donated.

Chris: Doing wishing well and bench---is tapping out after that---Will be busy with stuff for art show coming up in Missoula

Diane: If you find stuff to be auctioned, let Diane know— pictures of stuff, etc. so she can post on FaceBook.

Sue: About raffles--donations?

Diane: Vendors have been asked to donate if they care to. Some will. Even some not vending will donate.

Terry: Birdhouse guy contacted? Have birdhouse hotel.

Diane: Will do that.

MISCELLANEOUS:

Nancy: Dawn Newkirk got her Certificate in Design

Sharon: She is doing great with it.

Next meeting: IMPORTANT-PROBABLY THE LAST MEETING BEFORE EVENT—

Wednesday, June 7th at 4:00 at Holly Hut.

(Will decide then if there needs to be another meeting before event.)
